HEALING WORKS

Treatment, healing and recovery.

About Anne Crothers

Anne Crothers has a BA in Psychology from Moravian College and an M.Ed. in Social Restoration from Lehigh University.

She has 20+ years of clinical experience working with children, teens, adults and family systems. Her work focuses on trauma, addiction, and high-conflict divorce. She is also an interventionist and does a 2-day family invitational intervention.

Anne has partnered with many fine facilities. She is a straight shooter, a born networker and knows what referents expect from inpatient treatment. She knows excellence when she sees it!

Clinical Excellence

There are more options than ever for inpatient treatment for addiction treatment, eating disordered behaviors or mental health needs. There have been amazing breakthroughs in the field and the treatment has become more effective and more diverse.

Looking for a niche? Looking to improve service delivery and options? Want feedback about where your services stand in the field? That's where we come in!

Our 2-day minimum evaluation will cover all aspects of your facility, from the curtains to the trauma therapy. We will tour, observe, and do an honest appraisal of where you are and where you need to go to be excellent.

Ready to go to the next level? Our consult will point the way! Reach out!

CONSULTING SERVICES

Our consulting services will cover:

- Clinical treatment protocols and service delivery
- Staffing
- Marketing materials, website, social media presence, events
- Employee development programs, staff support and supervision
- Facility appearance, aesthetics, flow, landscaping
- Alternative treatments, spiritual programs
- Intake materials, screening
- Pricing
- Alumni relations, community relations
- Research options
- Specific issues or concerns that you have for your vision, your future, and your niche
- Optional staff trainings

HOW IT WORKS

Our consult is a minimum 2-day visit on your site with time to observe treatment groups, meals, and meet with key staff and residents when possible.

We charge $1,250 for 2 days, and $450 for each additional day. If we train your staff that will be at a rate of $120/hour. Travel expenses are additional.

This cost includes a full presentation for you and your team detailing strength areas and needs and personalized recommendations about your niche, your vision, and how you can stand out.

You can be excellent!
